

Adventure Racing

Sunday, 28 May 2006

Last Updated Saturday, 24 February 2007

Adventure Racing World Championship 2006 - In the land of the Sámi people and the Midnight Sun. The Adventure Racing World Championship 2006 will reach above the Arctic Circle in a course that will challenge all participants. In an area famous for its nature with breathtaking scenery, strikingly beautiful fjords and spectacular glaciers. Do not forget! you can also go for the first place and win 200 000 SEK

Race facts

Adventure Racing World Championship - website

The 2006 edition of the Adventure Racing World Championship will be staged in the land of the Sami people and the midnight sun. The Adventure Racing World Championship 2006 will reach above the Arctic Circle in a course that will challenge all participants.

The area is famous for its wild nature. Breathtaking views, strikingly beautiful fjords in the North Sea, fed from untamed white water rivers originating at the base of spectacular glaciers. You will discover caves that have survived the Ice Age, extreme wilderness and total freedom.

Teams consisting of the absolute best endurance athletes in the world qualified through the AR World Series will compete in one of the toughest competitions on earth, The Adventure Racing World Championship.

Southern Lapland in Sweden and Nordland in Norway are happy to host the 2006 event.

Dates: 16-23 August 2006

Time: 7 days non-stop racing

Shake down: Hemavan-Tärnaby, Sweden

Destination: Lapland, Sweden- Nordland, Norway

Teams: 40, 4 members mixed. Unsupported.

Countrys represented: 20

Total distance: 800 km

Max altitude: 1.900 m

Min altitude: -5 m

Elevation gain: 15,000 m

Sections: 19-25

Disciplines: Mountainbike, Trekking, Kayaking, White Water paddling , Glacier-mountaineering, Ropeworks, Coasteering, Canyoneering, Kickbike, Inlines and Caving.

Prize money

- 1st place 200.000 SEK

- 2nd place 80.000 SEK

- 3rd place 50.000 SEK

- 4th place 20.000 SEK

- 5th place 10.000 SEK

Adventure Racing World Championship - websiteLast Updated (Thursday, 20 April 2006)